

The architecture of the MatchZoo toolkit is described in the Figure in what follows,

There are three major modules in the toolkit, namely data preparation, model construction, training and evaluation, respectively. These three modules are actually organized as a pipeline of data

Data Preparation

1. Navigation Panel

2. Primary Panel

3. Secondary Panel